

THINKING OUTSIDE THE ORB: HOW ANCIENT ASTRONOMERS FIGURED OUT THE UNIVERSE

Open Talk (in English)

Wednesday, 13 February 18.30
Duration: 45mins - 1 hour

Venue:
Bibliothek Zug
St.-Oswalds-Gasse 21
6300 Zug

Conference Room, Top Floor.

Participation is free of charge.

For further information:
cristian@ancient.eu.com

With no access to modern instruments of measurement, provided only with observational skills and lucid thinking, ancient astronomers established the shape of our planet, its size, and other astronomical notions, many of which were astonishingly close to modern estimations. How did they do it?

If this topic intrigues you, join Cristian Violatti, author and former editor of the online Ancient History Encyclopedia, for another discussion on the human past.

Bibliothek

ZUG
S t a d t